Dear Jim:

I am outside counsel for Maxtor Corporation. I have attempted to contact you via telephone on a number of occasions. I recently left a message for you at what I believe is your telephone number at work. On your voice-mail, this e-mail address was provided.

I was hoping that you have received the patent-related materials that I forwarded to you. I was also hoping that you could forward the executed documents to me at your earliest convenience.

In addition, please let me know of the expenses you incur for the Notary Public. It generally costs about $10 to get a document notarized from Mailboxes, etc. (or some similar business). Please forward the receipt to me and I will send a check to you for the Notary.

If you have any questions regarding the materials I sent to you, please give me a call.

I would also appreciate it if you could send me a return e-mail to verify that you received this message.

Regards,

Paul S. Hansra

Re: U.S. Patent Application entitled "ONE BUTTON EXTERNAL BACKUP"
Maxtor Disclosure No.: 826
Our File No. 3123-514

Dear Mr. McGrath:

I am outside counsel for Maxtor Corporation. On September 5, 2003, I filed the above-identified patent application which names you as an inventor.

We have now received a notification from the U.S. Patent Office that formal documents associated with the patent application are required to be filed. Accordingly, enclosed are: (1) a copy of the patent application which was filed with the U.S. Patent Office on 09/05/2003; (2) a Declaration that indicates that you, John Hamer, Patrick Weiher, James Lin and Michael Webster are the inventors of the subject matter of the application; and, (3) an Assignment whereby all of you assign all rights in the invention to Maxtor Corporation. These documents have been sent to each of the other inventors.

Mr. James McGrath

I would appreciate it if you would review and execute the Declaration and Assignment. Please note that the Assignment must be notarized. Accordingly, a Notary Public must witness and attest to your signing of the Assignment. A California All-Purpose Notary Form has been supplied for the notary section of the Assignment. Once the Declaration and Assignment have been signed, please mail me the originals.

If you have any questions, please contact me (collect) at (360) 527-1400 (direct). Best regards.

Sincerely,

Paul
